CITIZENSHIP

To provide for citizenship by naturalization, renunciation of citizenship, and the establishment of a Citizenship Commission.

PART 1 – PRELIMINARY

1. Interpretation

(1) In this Act unless the context otherwise requires –

"applicant" means an applicant for citizenship under this Act;

"Commission" means the Citizenship Commission established by section 2;

"child" means a natural or lawfully adopted child of an applicant or of the spouse who has not attained 18 years;

"citizen" means a citizen of Vanuatu;

"citizenship" means the citizenship of Vanuatu;

"Constitution" means the Constitution of Vanuatu;

"dual citizenship" means a person with the status as a citizen of two countries;

"oath of allegiance" means the oath of allegiance or solemn affirmation prescribed in Schedule 1;

"spouse" means the lawful spouse of an applicant;

"Vanuatu" means the Republic of Vanuatu;

(2) For the purpose of this Act –

(a) a person is of age if he has attained the age of 18 years; and

(b) a person is not of full capacity if he is a mentally disordered or defective person, so found and not discharged as sane, under the provisions of any Act relating to mental treatment.

PART 2 – CITIZENSHIP COMMISSION

2. Establishment of Citizenship Commission

There is hereby established a commission to be known as the Citizenship Commission.

3. Membership of the Commission

(1) The Commission is to consist of the following members appointed by the President after consultation with the Prime Minister:

(a) 2 members nominated by the Prime Minister; and

(b) 1 member nominated by the Malvatuma Council of Chiefs; and

(c) 1 member nominated by the National Council of Women; and

(d) 1 member nominated by the Vanuatu Christian Council.

(1A) The President after consultation with the Prime Minister is to appoint a Chairperson of the Commission from amongst the members.

(2) Subject to subsection (1) members of the Commission shall hold office for a period of 3 years and shall be eligible for reappointment.

- (3) A person is eligible to be appointed as a member of the Commission if he or she:
 - (a) is a citizen of Vanuatu and does not hold dual citizenship; and
 - (b) has no previous criminal record; and
 - (c) is of good standing in the community.
- (4) the Prime Minister may prescribe other criteria for appointment as a member of the Commission.
- (5) Despite paragraph 3(3)(a), an indigenous or naturalised citizen who holds dual citizenship may be appointed as a member of the Commission.

4. Resignation and removal of members of the Commission

- (1) A member of the Commission may resign his office by notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the President.
- (2) The President may remove a member of the Commission with effect from a date notified by him in the Vanuatu Gazette.

5. Functions and powers of the Commission

- (1) The Commission shall carry out such functions as are provided for it in this or any other Act.
- (2) The Commission shall have such powers as are conferred on it specifically or by necessary implication by this or any other Act and shall generally in addition have such powers as shall enable it to exercise any of its functions.
- (3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (2), the Commission has the following powers:
 - (a) to consider and approve applications for citizenship; and
 - (b) to revoke a citizenship that has been granted if:
 - (i) the citizenship was granted in a fraudulent manner; or
 - (ii) the citizenship was granted contrary to the provisions of this Act or the Constitution; or
 - (iii) the person after being granted citizenship is not complying with the restrictions provided in this Act.

6. Ministerial directions and requests

- (1) The Prime Minister may give directions to the Commission of a general nature concerning the exercise of its functions or powers and the Commission shall comply with such directions.
- (2) The Prime Minister may in writing require the Commission to advise him on any matter relating to citizenship and the Commission shall comply with such requirement.

7. Meetings and procedure

- (1) The Commission may convene not more than 12 ordinary meetings and 12 extraordinary meetings in a year.
- (2) The quorum for meetings shall be the chairman and half the other members of the Commission.
- (3) If the chairman for good cause cannot attend a meeting the Prime Minister shall appoint a member to act as chairman for that meeting.

- (4) The Commission shall decide matters before it by a simple majority of the members present and voting. In cases of equality of voting the chairman shall have a casting vote.
- (5) Subject to such rules as the Prime Minister may make by Order the Commission may determine its own procedure with regard to the convening and conduct of meetings to ensure that the processing of applications are carried out in an effective and efficient manner.

8. Allowances

Members of the Commission who are not public officers shall be paid such allowances and expenses as the Prime Minister may determine after consultation with the Minister responsible for finance.

PART 2A – SECRETARY GENERAL, OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

8A. Appointment of Secretary General and other staff

The Secretary General and other staff of the Citizenship Office are to be appointed by the Public Service Commission.

8B. Functions of the Secretary General

The Secretary General has the following functions:

- (a) to act as the Chief Executive Officer of the Commission; and
- (b) to advise the Commission on matters related to the exercise of the functions of the Commission; and
- (c) to notify members of the Commission of meetings; and
- (d) to ensure meetings are organised within the annual budget ceiling of the Commission; and
- (e) to take minutes of all meetings of the Commission; and
- (f) to issue letters of certification of citizenship; and
- (fa) to inform the applicant on the decision of the Commission regarding the person's application for citizenship; and
- (g) to liaise with foreign embassies and foreign governments on matters of citizenship; and
- (h) such other functions as may be conferred on it by this Act or any other Act.

8BA. Failure to take and subscribe to an oath of allegiance or make solemn affirmation under Schedule 1

- (1) A person who has had his or her application approved by the Commission must pay the citizenship fee and take and subscribe to an oath of allegiance or make a solemn affirmation under Schedule 1 within 3 months of being informed by the Secretary General of the approval of his or her application.
- (2) If the person fails to comply with subsection (1), the approval by the Commission of his or her application for citizenship expires.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), a person may with reasonable excuse, in writing request the Secretary General for a further period of 2 months prior to the expiry of the period referred to in subsection (1).

- (4) If upon the expiry of the period referred to in subsection (3), the person has failed to comply with subsection (1), the approval by the Commission of his or her application for citizenship expires.
- (5) To avoid doubt, the person must submit a new application to the Commission if he or she intends to apply again for citizenship.

8C. Internal Screening Committee

- (1) The Prime Minister is to appoint an Internal Screening Committee for the purpose of screening applications made in accordance with subsection 12(2) and Part 3A, before the applications are considered and approved by the Commission.

22A. Penalty notices

- (1) The Secretary General of the Commission may serve a penalty notice on a person if it appears to the officer that the person has committed an offence under this Act or the Regulations and the offence is one that is stated by the Regulations to be an offence to which this section applies.
- (2) A penalty notice is a notice to the effect that, if the person served does not wish to have the matter determined by a court, the person may pay within a time and to a person specified in the notice, the amount of penalty stated in the penalty notice.
- (3) A penalty notice may be served personally or by post.
- (4) If the amount of penalty prescribed for the purposes of this section for an alleged offence is paid under this section, that person is not liable to any further proceedings for the alleged offence.
- (5) Payment under this section is not to be regarded as an admission of liability for the purpose of, nor in any way affect or prejudice, any proceeding arising out of the same occurrence.
- (6) The Regulations may:
- (a) prescribe an offence for the purposes of this section by specifying the offence or by referring to the provision creating the offence; and
 - (b) prescribe the amount of penalty payable for the offence if dealt with under this section; and
 - (c) prescribe different amounts of penalties for different offences or classes of offences.
- (7) The amount of a penalty prescribed under this section for an offence must not exceed the maximum amount of penalty prescribed in this Act.
- (8) This section does not limit the operation of any other provision of, or made under, this or any other Act relating to proceedings that may be taken in respect of offences.

23. Regulations

The Prime Minister may by Order, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribe all matters that may be required to be prescribed by this Act or for the better carrying out or giving effect to its provisions.

24. Fees

Without derogating from the generality of section 23 the Prime Minister may by order prescribe fees to be charged in respect of forms and other matters required or necessary for the better carrying into effect the provisions of the Act.
